FROM DEAN MATASAR

Welcome back! Another year, a few more inches of insulation added under the belt, and several broken resolutions later, it's great to be in Chicago where the sun appears (once in a while) and you have all survived finals.

This week brings many new things: a president, perhaps a new direction for our country's legal system, and, of course, a new semester. New events present us with wonderful opportunities. We can rededicate ourselves to learning, the quest to serve others, and the feeling of accomplishment that come from doing one's job well. I hope that each of us will aim as high as we can imagine, and that we will reach at least some of our goals. I know that we cannot be satisfied with the status quo; in our never-ending quest to improve, we will.

It's great to back. Stop by in "Deanland"--it's always great to hear of your successes (and even of your noble failures). Have a great first week!

FROM DEAN CHAPMAN

Welcome back! I hope you had a wonderful vacation and will have a rewarding semester.

Registrar's Announcements

There are several important announcements in the Registrar's section of this Record, including procedures and deadlines for adding and dropping courses and waiving insurance coverage. Please review these announcements carefully.

1993-1994 Academic Calendar

The 1993-1994 academic calendar is attached to The Record.

Preliminary Summer Schedule

The preliminary 1993 summer schedule is attached to The Record. Some additions and other changes may be made before the schedule is finalized. Students may register for a maximum of six credit hours during the summer session.

Some students have suggested that Trial Advocacy or another course be scheduled on Saturday during the summer session. If a 3-hour class could be arranged, it would meet five hours each Saturday for eight weeks. Please email me (HCHAPMAN) within the next week if you may be interested in taking a Saturday class and indicate what course(s) you would be interested in taking.

Certificate in International and Comparative Law

Graduating seniors who need one additional seminar to fulfill the requirements for the new Certificate in International and Comparative Law should email me as soon as possible.

Code of Conduct Amendments

On December 8, 1992, the faculty adopted the following amendments to the Code of Conduct which became effective as of that date. The stricken language is current Code language that has been deleted. The language in bold-underlined type is new language added to the Code.

(1) Section 6-5(b) of the Code of Conduct is amended as follows:

Whenever a student is convicted of violating this Code, a notation to that effect shall be made on the individual's transcript. However, ~~if the Tribunal determines that the violation was de minimis, the Tribunal may order that no notation be made on the individual's transcript.~~ if the Tribunal unanimously determines that the interests of justice so require, the Tribunal may suspend the entry of said notation on conditions it deems appropriate.

(2) Section 6-5(b) of the Code of Conduct is amended by adding the following sentence at the end thereof:

Whether or not the violation is noted on the transcript, it will be reported to appropriate licensing authorities.

[Comment: The Character and Fitness Committee of the Illinois Bar and similar committees of other states' bars require the law school to report all convictions of ethical violations. The law school has always reported convictions, even if no notation was made on the student's transcript. This amendment to the Code of Conduct was made to give students notice of this practice and to avoid the inference that omitting the transcript notation will mean that the Character and Fitness committees will not be informed of the conviction.]

(3) §6-6 of the Code of Conduct is amended to read as follows:

Following imposition of sanctions, the Tribunal shall notify the Convicted Violator, inform the Prosecutor and publish findings of fact and conclusions of law and the sanctions imposed, provided however that if the full opinion in the case exceeds five pages in length, the Tribunal shall publish only a summary thereof, not to exceed five pages, which will include a statement that the full opinion is on file with the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. The published notice shall be dated and shall remain posted for one week while regular classes are in session.

FROM THE REGISTRAR

Immunization Records

State law requires the university to have a record of immunizations for each student. The university is going to cancel the registration of any student who has not submitted the appropriate records. The names of students who have not submitted the records are listed on the second floor bulletin board. If your name is on that list, please read the January 12, 1993 memo from Jim Novak to Jerry Brandes posted on the bulletin board next to the list of names.

Program Changes

You may add an open course to your schedule until Monday, February 1, 1993. Students on waiting lists who have been accepted into previously closed courses are listed on the bulletin board; you may add the course until Thursday, January 21, 1993. If you have not added the course by that date, the next student(s) on the waiting list will be given the opportunity to add the course. Students will have two days to add a course after they have been notified they are eligible to add the course. Students will be notified by email and by a notice posted on the second floor bulletin board.

You may drop a course, other than a required course or clinical course, until the final exam or paper due date. If you drop a course and reduce your credit hours for the semester, you will be charged tuition according to the following schedule:

Date of Withdrawal	Tuition Charge
during first week of the semester	no charge
second week	50% of tuition
third week	75% of tuition
after the third week	100% of tuition

To receive tuition credit, you must officially drop a course by submitting a signed Registration Change Form to the Registrar's office. Your schedule must comply with the minimum and maximum hour requirements in the academic regulations. Day students must take between 12 and 16 hours and Evening students must take between 8 and 11 hours. A petition to waive these requirements must be approved by Dean Chapman.

Student Insurance

All students registered for at least 12 credit hours are automatically enrolled in the IIT student insurance plan regardless of whether they are in the Day or Evening Division. The cost of the basic student insurance plan is $80 per semester and is included on your tuition bill.

Waiver of Student Insurance Coverage

If you are covered under another health plan and you want to waive the student insurance, a completed waiver form with the appropriate documentation must be received by the insurance company by February 15, 1993. Waiver forms are available in the Registrar's office. If your waiver is not received by the insurer by this deadline, the university is automatically billed for your coverage and will not refund the premium. At the bottom of the waiver form, the insurance company indicates it will acknowledge receipt of a valid waiver form and lists a phone number to call if you do not receive an acknowledgement within two weeks. If you submit a waiver, please make sure you obtain an acknowledgment from the insurer.

If you submitted a timely waiver form for the Fall semester, you do not have to submit another form for the Spring semester.

Spring 1993 Graduates

Please examine the Spring 1993 graduation list posted on the second floor bulletin board and make sure your name appears exactly as you want it printed on your diploma. If there are any errors or omissions, please advise the Registrar immediately. Graduating seniors must submit a diploma card by Friday, February 26, 1993.

Loan Checks

A list of loan checks which have been received by the Registrar is posted on the second floor bulletin board. This list is updated as checks are received. If your tuition account shows a balance due, you must endorse the entire check to the law school. If the loan check exceeds the tuition balance, submit a refund request and the refund check will be sent to the Registrar's office within 7-10 working days.

Tuition Payments

If you elected the tuition installment plan, the second installment of $300 was due January 4, 1993 and the third $300 installment will be due February 1, 1993. On March 1, 1993, 50% of the balance is due and the remaining balance will be due April 1, 1993. You must make these payments to maintain your registration. If your financial aid covers part of your tuition, refer to page 2 of the Registration Bulletin to determine the installment amount due. Copies of the Registration Bulletin are available in the Registrar's office. You may make tuition payments in the Registrar's office by personal check, Visa or MasterCard. You may also mail your payment to the IIT Bursar's office at 3300 S. Federal, Chicago, IL 60616.

Fall Grades

Fall semester grades that have been submitted by the faculty are available on Kentnet. You may access the grade program through any terminal in the law school. Grades are due within six weeks after the final exam date or by February 3, 1993, if there was no final exam in the course.

Pass-Fail Election

You must submit two copies of the pass/fail election form or revocation of election by Monday, February 1, 1993. Please refer to the pass/fail rules and regulations posted on the bulletin board. Trial Advocacy courses may not be taken on a pass/fail basis.

ID Validation Stickers

ID card validation stickers will be distributed in the cafeteria on Tuesday, January 19 and Wednesday, January 20 from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

FROM SBA PRESIDENT KWAME RAOUL

Welcome back. I know you are all so glad to be back. I witnessed those of you who were really anxious to get back enjoying Intensive Trial Advocacy last week. You brave souls. I personally could not wait to leave Florida's 80 degree weather, so I could come back to Chicago and walk around in the slush and relish the wonderful Chicago wind (aka the "Hawk") blowing through my hair. Okay, I don't have any hair, but I did before I came to law school.

As we begin spring semester and 1993, I would like to reflect upon what we all accomplished last semester and year:

ONE Ls -- You have completed a semester of law school and you are back for more. Congratulations, you are half way through law school. Okay, I'm sorry, contrary to popular belief, first year is not the only significant year in law school, but if you made it this far you are well on your way.

TWO Ls -- All of the stress of fall interviewing is over, so it is time to start looking for a summer job. Don't worry, it will make you all better people if you have to search hard for your summer positions. Dean Matasar always reminds me that fall interviewing is a rather new concept, and there was such a thing as job hunting before there was fall interviewing. Don't get discouraged. Oh, by the way, congratulations, you are also halfway through law school.

Fellow graduating THREE Ls and FOUR Ls -- This is it. I won't congratulate you yet because I know how likely you are to end your law school careers prematurely. It ain't over 'til it's over. If what they say about boring you to death third year is true at Chicago-Kent, it will only be because you let it be that way.

Student Organizations -- Well I'm glad to hear that most of you thought that we had many accomplishments last semester. For the few of you who were dissatisfied with what student organizations were able to accomplish and more importantly what the Student Bar Association contributed to student activities, I hate to but I must reiterate that there are a number of avenues available to communicate your complaints to the SBA. To make things easier I am calling the first of a series of meetings of all student organization leaders on Wednesday, January 27 at 5:15 p.m. I hope that most of you will be able to attend or send a representative. I hope to have an even more active semester this spring than we did last fall. After all, who is John Paul Stevens, Derrick Bell and Ilana Rovner?

No seriously, I would like to thank and congratulate the student leaders who contributed to the success of last semester. I hate to be like the street beggar that asks for $10 instead of spare change, but do you have more to give?

Peace.

SPECIAL NOTICES

From Professor Ralph Brill:

I want to thank all of you who responded to my notice in the last Record asking for volunteers for the Children's Legal Clinic. The response was very satisfying to me, and I know that Sue Davis and her staff are very, very grateful for the help. The Clinic continues to receive widespread publicity; for example, Sue Davis and Michelle Jordan (a Kent Alum) recently appeared on the Jerry Springer Show, and the clinic will be featured in upcoming Court TV and 20/20 specials. It continues to do some wonderful things for some very unfortunate kids. I would encourage any students who have some free time to volunteer to help. Just call Sue Davis at 275-4371. Also, the fund-raiser for the clinic will be in February. Mike Singletary is sponsoring a pool tournament, with many famous celebrities, sports and non-sports, participating. Some student volunteers may be needed at that time for ticket taking, driving, etc. And tickets will be available to the event, at relatively modest cost. Thanks again.

The Electronic Casebook Supplement

During the Spring, 1993, semester, Professor Ronald W. Staudt will explore the impact of an electronic casebook supplement with his Intellectual Property II: Copyrights class. Professor Staudt has developed an electronic supplement to the copyright casebook, Copyright for the Nineties, published by The Michie Company. This electronic casebook supplement is a student notetaking tool written in a hypertext environment. It contains:

- the structure or map of the printed casebook but not the text of the cases,

- a software link to the LEXIS/NEXIS services for use from home,
- navigation buttons that carry the user up, down, back and forth through the hierarchical table of contents, and
- an outline generator that produces a preliminary outline organized by section and chapter of the book hierarchy with all student notes.

The electronic supplement also includes the text of the Copyright Act of 1976, related statutory material and definitions from the Copyright statute. Students can cut and copy text from the Copyright statute into their notes, and can import LEXIS/NEXIS material into these notes.

The software program will be available on disc to all members of the class who wish to have a copy for use on the individual student's personal computer. In addition, Professor Staudt will make notebook computers, which contain this software, available on loan for members of this class who agree to be more extensively involved in testing the software. Students who participate in the notebook testing as part of this project, will participate in various focus group discussions and surveys designed to measure the impact of this technology on legal education.

Scientist Who Discovered CFC-Ozone Connection, Susan Solomon, to Speak at IIT

Susan Solomon, who is credited with finding the connection between manmade CFC's and the holes in the ozone layer above Antarctica, and who earned her bachelor's degree in chemistry at IIT, will speak in the Smith-Olson Auditorium of Perlstein Hall on IIT's Main Campus on Friday, January 29, 1993 at part of IIT's 1993 Trustees' Distinguished Lectures series. Dr. Solomon is a senior scientist with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's Aeronomy Laboratory. She was named 1992 Scientist of the Year by R&D Magazine. In 1992, she was inducted into the National Academy of Sciences, becoming the youngest current member of the U.S. government's official advisory panel on questions concerning science and technology. The title of her January 29 presentation is "Ozone Depletion: New Findings and Future Forecasts." Call 312-567-5777 to reserve a seat.

Other lecturers in the series include Dr. Chang-Lin Tien, Chancellor of the University of California, Berkeley, February 26; Dr. Robert A. Frosch, Vice President of General Motors Research, April 8, and Dr. Arno A. Penzias, Vice President of Research, AT&T Bell Laboratories, April 30.

Professor Anita Bernstein to speak Jan. 26

Professor Anita Bernstein will be back with us for only a few short days!!!! Come hear her speak on her work in progress regarding comparative sexual harassment law and how sexual harassment affects employee productivity. Tuesday, January 26 at 11:45, room TBA. Sponsored by Women in Law.

CBA Sponsors Large Firm Matching Program for Minorities

For the third year, the Chicago Bar Association is sponsoring a special project to provide large firm, summer associate opportunities for first-year Illinois law students who are members of groups, such as African American, Hispanic and Asian, that have been historically underrepresented in large law firms. The goal of this program is to expose students from traditionally underrepresented groups to the large law firm environment by participation in a law firm's summer program.

Chicago-Kent College of Law has accepted the CBA's invitation to participate in the program. Chicago-Kent will provide the CBA with the names of two to three students selected from the categories of groups described above 1) who are interested in being a first-year summer associate at a large firm and 2) whom the law school believes would benefit most from the experience.

The CBA will randomly match Chicago-Kent with a participating law firm. The firm will then interview the Chicago-Kent candidates and select a single student to take part in its Summer Program.

The availability of a law school-law firm match will of course be dependent upon an adequate number of participating law firms. The hope is that there will be at least nine participating law firms so that each Illinois law school can be matched to a firm.

Any student wishing to be considered should submit a letter, addressed to Assistant Dean Judith Saunders, explaining why he or she is interested in serving as a summer associate at a large firm and providing any other information that would be useful in the application process. Applicants should attach a resume.

This application packet will be reviewed along with first-semester law school grades and other indicia of past performance. Your law school professors also will be contacted. Based on the available information, the law school will select the two to three candidates who show the most potential to excel in this program and refer those students to the CBA. The dean has appointed several faculty and staff members to act as the selection committee.

Applications should be submitted to Assistant Dean Saunders' office no later than 5:00 p.m., Wednesday, February 3, 1993.

Study Abroad Grants

The Institute of International Education (IIE) is pleased to announce the availability of grants in the amount of $1,000 each to students at Midwest colleges and universities for overseas study in 1993-1994. Any student enrolled in an accredited undergraduate or graduate degree program is eligible to apply. Winners will be selected on the basis of their study plan, their letter of recommendation, and their statement of proposed study. Applications must be received in the IIE office by March 19. Grant winners will be announced by April 15. Further details are available in Dean Chapman's Office, Room 320.

Tuition Prepayment Option for Part-Time Students

The university has agreed to implement a tuition prepayment program for part-time students starting the summer 1993 semester. Details about the discount available to students who enroll for less than 12 hours will be published later this spring.

Wall Street Journal Subscriptions

Students and faculty who would like a discount subscription to The Wall Street Journal can sign up on the sheet posted on Prof. Hablutzel's office door (Room 829) or send him an email message (PHABLUTZEL). Indicate: your name and your mailing address; whether your desired subscription is for one year ($69.50), six months ($39.00), 15 weeks ($22), and your anticipated date of graduation. The paper starts arriving about two weeks after the list is sent in (Monday, January 25 and again Tuesday, February 2). Subscribers will be billed directly from The Journal.

FACULTY NEWS

Professor Ronald Staudt's article "Law Office Automation -- Approaching the Millenium," will be published in the first issue of Oxford University's new International Journal of Law and Information Technology which is to appear in February or March 1993.

The United States Tax Court recently decided a case in which Visiting Professor Steve Johnson represented the Government. The Tax Court decided the case in favor of the Government, holding that for pre-1990 tax years, the penalties under former Internal Revenue Code Sections 6653 (negligent understatement of tax) and 6661 (substantial understatement of tax) could be imposed conjunctively on the same taxpayer for the same conduct in the same tax year. Schwartz v. Commissioner of Internal Revenue, T.C. Memo. 1992-677, 64 T.C.M. 1384.

Professor Evelyn Brody spent two weeks in Washington helping the Clinton Transition Team produce a briefing book for the incoming Internal Revenue Service Commissioner and Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Tax Policy. The 10-person tax team was directed by U.C.L.A. professor Sam Thompson, who started up Kent's L.L.M tax program. They interviewed current and former top IRS, Treasury, and Capital Hill officials and staff, reviewed agency material, and wrote descriptions of the agency's structure, operations, and problems and challenges it faces.

Professor Fred Abbott was elected chair-elect of the International Law Section of the AALS. He will hold this position for two years.

Professor Philip Hablutzel will chair an all-day seminar for the Illinois State Bar Association's section of Commercial, Banking & Bankruptcy Law on Friday, January 22, in Bloomington, IL. The seminar will cover new developments in bankruptcy practice, recently adopted amendments to the Uniform Commercial Code and will feature a panel discussion of the increased exposure of law firms which advise banks under the Kay Scholar case. The entire program will be repeated in Chicago on January 28.

Professors Marc Kadish, Dave Thomas and Bartram Brown appeared on John Calloway's "Chicago Tonight" on WTTW over the semester break. Professor Kadish appeared on the show December 28th when the topic was the Weinberger pardon. Professor Kadish also appeared on the Chicago Tribune's new 24 cable news channel, "Chicagoland TV," Friday, January 15, in an interview regarding the Palentine investigation. Professor Thomas appeared on the Calloway show January 11 when the topic was the Palentine murders investigation. Professor Thomas also provided commentary to The Daily Herald, WBBM Radio and Chicagoland TV on the investigation. Professor Brown appeared on the Calloway show January 13th when the topic was the situation in Iraq. Professor Sheldon Nahmod was interviewed by WNUA on them Bray U.S. Supreme Court decision, which aired January 13 and 14.

Did You Participate in Fall 1992 On-Campus Interviewing? If so, Did You Turn in Your Follow-up Survey Printout?

If you participated in Fall 1992 On-Campus Interviewing, you should have received a letter from Lisa Abrams asking you to complete a computer generated follow-up survey.

If you haven't returned your follow-up survey, please stop by Career Services to pick up and complete a duplicate survey. It will only take you a few seconds to complete the survey--and it will provide Career Services with the information we need to evaluate the effectiveness of the interview program.

Even if you received no second interviews, you need to complete the survey. Please stop by to complete your survey form by Friday, January 29th!!

An Update on the Midwest Public Interest Law Career Conference

Students who have registered for the Midwest Public Interest Law Career Conference on February 27, 1993 should immediately pick up their informational packet and interview preferencing materials from the Career Services Office.

Interview preferencing materials are due to the Career Services Office no later than Thursday, January 21st! This is a final deadline!

So far, seventeen employers plan to conduct interviews at the conference. Eight additional employers plan to participate in "table talk," an informational exchange with students.

If you did not preregister for the conference, you can still participate in the "table talk" informational exchange with the employers. The "table talk" sessions will be held from 9:00 a.m. to noon on Saturday, February 27th, at Northwestern Law School, 357 E. Chicago Avenue, Chicago.

You are also invited to attend the panel discussion presented from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The panel discussion is entitled "Public Interest War Stories." It will feature public interest attorneys who recently graduated from law school. The panelists will share stories about how they found their jobs and share advice for those entering the public interest job market.

How Can You Find A Public Interest or Government Job? Hear What Ron Fox, National Specialist in Public Interest Law Careers, Has to Say About the Public Interest Job Search

As a kickoff to the Midwest Public Interest Law Career Conference, Mr. Ron Fox, Executive Director of the Public Interest Law Career Center in Cambridge, MA, is presenting a workshop on how to locate public interest law/government opportunities. Ron Fox is probably the best known national figure in public interest law career planning.

Ron's workshop, titled "Finding the Way," will be presented on Friday, February 26 from 3:30 p.m. -5:00 p.m. at Northwestern Law School, 357 East Chicago Avenue. If you plan to attend, please sign up on the sign up sheet in the Career Services Office.

Ron will also run a second workshop on Saturday, February 27th, the focus of which will be practice areas in public interest law. The workshop will include networking techniques and make use of breakout sessions. This Saturday workshop will be held from 2:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. at Northwestern Law School, 357 East Chicago Avenue.

Do You Plan to Take the Illinois Bar Exam Someday?

If the answer to the above question is "YES!", then mark your calendar for Friday, January 29th at 2:00 p.m. in room 370, when you'll have the opportunity to attend "Helpful Hints for the Bar Examination."

Peter Lousberg, President of the Illinois State Bar Association, and Stuart Duhl, member of the Board of Admissions to the Bar, will be speakers at the program.

Stuart Duhl actually writes questions for the essay portion of the Illinois Bar Exam--he will field your questions about both the essay portion and the Multistate portion of the Illinois Bar. Peter Lousberg will discuss how the ISBA can help you in your practice once you are admitted.

All students who plan to take the Illinois Bar Exam should attend this event! Don't miss what will definitely be an important and revealing look at what to expect from the Bar Exam!

If you plan to attend, please sign up on the sign-up sheet in Career Services by January 26th.

Resume Writing Workshop

If you missed the resume workshop first semester, or if you're considering revising your resume to increase its effectiveness, come to our spring resume writing workshop. Lisa Abrams will present this program on Tuesday, February 2nd at 11:45 a.m. The room will be announced in next week's Record.

National Association for Law Placement 1993 National Apartment Exchange

The National Association for Law Placement (NALP) sponsors a National Apartment Exchange that assists students in finding and subleasing summer housing by listing apartments available and summer sublets sought throughout the United States. Each year over 1000 law students list apartments they will be leaving for the summer. You can list your apartment--or your interest in finding one in a particular city.

Information and forms for those listing or seeking housing are available in Handout #51 in the Career Services Office. Forms are due to the National Association for Law Placement by February 19 and late forms cannot be accepted.

Job Opportunity for 1993 Grads Interested in Intellectual Property

Whyte & Hirschboeck, S.C., a 55 attorney Milwaukee based law firm has an opening in their Milwaukee office for an attorney to join their intellectual property practice upon graduation from law school and admission to the Wisconsin Bar.

Further information is available in Handout #52 in the Career Services Office.

Are You Considering a Summer Abroad?

If you're thinking about studying abroad this summer, take a look at the study abroad information contained in the January 1993 Student Lawyer. For your convenience, this Student Lawyer article has been reproduced as Handout #50 in the Career Services Office.

Missing Career Resource Books

The Career Services Office is continually striving to update present resource materials and add new books, directories, and periodicals. We just completed our yearly inventory of materials and learned that $1800 worth of resource materials have been lost (checked out but not returned) or stolen during the last year.

That means that this year, over 50% of our budget for new resource materials will go to replacing missing books and directories. We're concerned about this problem--and we're disappointed that we are unable to add the new materials we planned to purchase this year.

Please be considerate of other students and make sure to return the books you checked out to Career Services on time and take time to properly check the books back in! If you need to extend the due date of a book you've checked out, please call us. We appreciate your help!

OTA Congressional Fellowship Program 1993-1994

The Office of Technology Assessment (OTA) is seeking outstanding candidates from academia, business and industry, and the public sector for its Congressional Fellowship Program. Up to six Fellows will be selected for a one year appointment in Washington, DC, usually beginning in September 1993.

The program provides an opportunity for individuals of proven ability to assist Congress in its deliberations on science and technology issues affecting public policy and to gain a better understanding of the ways in which Congress establishes national policy related to these issues.

Further information is available in Handout #53 in the Career Services Office. The deadline for applications is Feb. 1, 1993.

UCLA Fellowship for Training Minority and Women Scholars in the Field of Public International Law and Institutions

The UCLA School of Law announces the availability of a fellowship, made possible by funds from the Ford Foundation, for training a minority or a woman scholar in the field of public international law and institutions. The fellowship covers all expenses, including a summer internship opportunity, and extends for two academic years. Upon successful completion of the program, an LL.M. degree will be awarded.

Detailed application information is available in Handout #54 in the Career Services Office. The application deadline is March 1, 1993.

Summer Internships with the Internal Revenue Service

Handout #55 contains detailed information about summer intern opportunities with the Internal Revenue Service. The National Office of the Chief Counsel hosts a summer intern program in Washington DC (first year students are urged to apply by February 1st). The Chicago District Counsel office also seeks candidates for their internship program. Application information for both offices is contained in Handout #55.

Have you purchased your dial-in software yet? Copies are available in the Chicago-Kent Bookstore for $30.00

With the dial-in software you can LOGIN to KentNet from your home computer (equipped with a modem). Current services available via remote access are email (send and receive), grades and Chicago-Kent classifieds. Services under development include downloading CALI lessons and receiving files attached to email messages.

Fall 1992 Grades

Approximately 25 percent of the grades from Fall Semester have been posted on KentNet. The turn-around time between submission of grades to the Registrar and their posting on KentNet depends on the rate at which grades are input at the Main Campus. Please be patient. We will be checking the Main Campus VAX daily, and will update the listings as new entries are available.

If you have any other difficulty accessing your grades, contact John Mayer at (312) 906-5302. Remember to include your full name, your LOGIN name and social security number when you leave a voice mail message.

Help Docs

What's my Internet address? How do I use Wordperfect fonts? Can I make a section symbol outside of WordPerfect? Is there an easy way to create mailing lists and merge letters?

These and other questions are answered in Help Docs. Help Docs are 1-2 page instructions for frequently used features of applications. Help Docs are located in Lab 700 on the literature racks. The list of titles is constantly growing; if you would like to see a particular Help Doc topic, email your suggestion(s) to Josephine McEntee (JMCENTEE).

Exams on Computer

Exams are over . . . for now. Here are a few statistics from Fall Semester.

- o of the 12 days scheduled for exams, there was only one day (Saturday, December 19) that had no exams on computer scheduled;
- o 737 exams were taken on computer;
- o the most exams taken on computer in a single day -- 129 -- was Tuesday, December 22;

- o the fewest exams taken on computer in a single day -- 17 -- was Tuesday, December 15;
- o final laser printouts of exams consumed 15 reams of paper and two laser jet toner cartridges;
- o the most frequently asked questions about exams:
 - How do I make a header?
 - Do I need to bring diskettes?
 - Where do I start and end my exam?
 - Is it too late to sign up?
- o the most frequent mistake on exams:
 - FORGETTING TO PUT THE EXAM NUMBER IN A HEADER.

This semester, as was done last semester, the Computer Center will hold "How to Take Your Exam on Computer" sessions to acquaint students with the procedures. Watch for class days and times in this section of the Record.

Email Stations

The XT is dead, long live the 386sx/33! The EXTREMELY SLOW email stations have been upgraded to swifter, faster machines. Still located on the Concourse, in the cafeteria and in the alcove by the 2nd Floor lockers, the enhanced email stations boast a more powerful CPU (Central Processing Unit) that executes commands and delivers information in a timely fashion. Don't be fooled by the old "green screens"; seated beneath each of them is the speedy email delivery system you asked for. Check it out!

Help Desk Volunteers

During Fall Semester, the Computer Center was fortunate to have student volunteers staff the HELP DESK in Lab 700. Collectively, they provided more than 500 troubleshooting hours. We extend our thanks to:

Dominick Grillo	Leslie Slater	Laura Wallace
Ian Greengross	Buck Foss	Kay Gemrich
Martin Cordero	Greg Bell	David Miller
Eugene Kuo	Deborah Caldwell	Derek Caldwell
Ralph Krisher	Michelle Sibley	Kerri Kamis
Todd Miller	Romi Bose

We can never have too many volunteers. Aside from the obvious perks: chocolate chip cookies, free laser quality printing, brownies, working on sundry Computer Center projects, chocolate cake, developing marketable network and PC skills, chocolate cheesecake pie; volunteers are in the unique position to beta test services and influence the computing environment at Chicago-Kent.

If you would like to volunteer two hours minimum of your time each week, contact Josephine McEntee via email (JMCENTEE), or call her at (312) 906-5660.

ORGANIZATIONS

Black Law Student Association (BLSA)

There will be a general meeting on this Saturday, January 24, at 11:30 a.m. Room to be announced.

Evening Law Students Society

Evening students should notice that the Placement Office will be holding later hours Wednesday and Thursday this semester, and also please note the Saturday hours.

Please also note that a tuition prepayment program, which provides a bit of a discount, has been approved for part-time students. Jim Snodgrass successfully campaigned for this change.

Kent Commentator

Welcome back to all students! Oh, sure, break was nice, but the law school challenge is better, right? What better way to involve yourself than by writing for the paper? The Editor and staff of the Kent Commentator invite you to join them in exploring the complex and touchy topics of the law school, the legal work environment, and the world. If you are interested, please contact June Edvenson (JEDVENSO) or Jordan Marsh (JMARSH) by email. It is guaranteed fun, is a feather in the hat of your accomplishments, and takes a small amount of time each month.

Three issues of the Commentator will be printed this term. The first issue of spring term will appear in February. The absolute deadline for the February issue is Friday, February 12 at exactly 5:00 p.m. All copy must be submitted in paper form to the Commentator office, C-86 or the mailroom mailbox by that time.

I would like to especially encourage articles for the February issue concerning the law school itself - its processes, problems and perceived needs for change. Contributions in the form of articles, letters, prose, poetry, comedy and opinion are invited from all members of the Chicago-Kent community. For further information or editorial guidance, contact us at any time. Looking forward to a great 1993 and more great news from the Kent Commentator! --June Edvenson

Law Review

CHICAGO-KENT LAW REVIEW has published issue 67:3, Symposium on the Law and Economics of Local Government. This symposium is a compilation of papers presented by law and economics scholars for the John M. Olin Conference on Law and Economics at the University of Virginia in November 1991.

Copies of issue 67:3 are available between the staircases to the student lounge area on the lower concourse level. Issue 67:3 is the fifth issue published since last June. Other recent issues are:

67:2 Symposium on Parliamentary Participation in the Making and Operation of Treaties (Fred Abbott)

67:1 Symposium on the Seventh Circuit as a Criminal Court (Adam Kurland)

66:3 Symposium on Labor Arbitration Thirty Years After the Steelworkers Trilogy (Martin Malin)

66:2 Symposium on Statutory Interpretation (William Popkin)

Please stop by to pick up a copy of the new issue as well as the previous issues.

Law Students' Action for Justice

LSAFJ is a unique group of law students who are committed to preserving (or regaining) the integrity of the judicial system, are not afraid of hard work, and would like some real-world experiences.

Specifically, LSAFJ investigates potential cases of wrongful conviction, whether the case is one where the convicted individual is innocent of the charges or a case where the system has failed to extend all of the constitutional and procedural protection to the convicted. Our members work on real cases, some high-profile, some not so high-profile.

If you are interest in applying the skills you have learned and are continuing to learn in law school, please join us. The work is piling up. Only serious students need apply. If you have any questions or want further information, contact Crystal Hoffman. (CHOFFMAN)

Student Bar Association

There will be a meeting of the SBA Board of Governors Thursday at 5:00 p.m. Room TBA (check the SBA bulletin board).

If you have not done so yet, it is not too late to fill out course evaluation forms for last semester. The forms will be available in the SBA office.

There will be a meeting of student organization presidents on Wednesday, January 27 at 5:15 p.m., Room TBA.

Women in Law

Women in Law welcomes everyone back to Chicago-Kent. We have several programs planned this semester including the speaking talents of Prof. Anita Bernstein early in the semester. Please look for future notices about events and a welcome back meeting for all members and interested people.

Women-in-Law will be handling the subscription service for The New York Times during the Spring 1993 semester. The discounted rate is $21 for 70 issues beginning January 25, 1993 to May 7, 1993 (Spring break and weekends are excluded). Please contact SCHEN @ KENTNET if you are interested.
